Instructions on How to Read Your Essence Chart

Your Essence chart is laid out by your age range, starting from your birth year. The “Essence” number indicates what you are emotionally working through year by year. The “Personal” Year is the vibrational pattern set up in your blueprint to develop the potential experiences you will attract for that year. The “Universal” Year, which is also known as a calendar year, represents the vibration you are in for that particular year.

Personal Years always begin on your birthday. If your birthday occurs in the second half of the calendar year, between July 1 through December 31, then you would actually fall under the next year’s vibrational pattern. The vibrational pull from birthdays in the last half of the year are magnetic and therefore, automatically pull you towards the following year’s vibration. Our computer program takes this calculation into consideration so the Personal Years indicated in your chart are correctly stated for each year and for those birthdays in the later half of the year, the adjustment has already been factored in. The vibrations you attract are from birthdate to birthdate.

When you read your Essence chart, you will look at the Essence, Personal, and Universal Year numbers together for a particular year to see what the three numbers will bring you, year by year. A general written explanation has been provided for all of the possible number variations that “could” be calculated for the Essence, Personal, and Universal Year numbers. It’s the combination of all three numbers shown in your personalized chart by year that paints the entire picture of what experiences you will attract for the entire year.

The Universal Year cycle is a 9-year period that may include two Master numbers (11/2 and 22/4 that would not reduce down to either a 2 or 4). Your cycle starts beginning on your birth year. For example, if you were age “1” in 1959, you would be in a “6” Universal Year, “7” in 1960, “8” in 1961, and a “9” in 1962. After the 9-year cycle, you would begin a new 9-year period, repeating years 1 through 9 over and over again.

The following is a partial example of what the Essence chart looks like and step-by-step instructions on how to read the chart.

Reading your chart:

- 1) Pick a year or age you want to research keeping in mind that from your birth year to the following year is age "1". For purposes of this exercise, we have only given you ages 1 and 2.
- 2) Scroll down the chart until you see the Essence, Personal and Universal Year numbers. This set of 3 numbers will give you a mini-blueprint of the 3 vibrations you will attract each year and what each vibration will bring you. You may search by year or by age.
- 3) In this example for age "1", you would be in a #1 Essence, #3 Personal Year, and a #7 Universal Year.
- 4) Next, look up the meaning of each number listed in your chart for the Essence, Personal and Universal Years. The three numbers combined influence the vibration you will attract for that year. In this case, the #1 Essence represents new beginnings and forward movement in a #3 joyful and creative Personal Year in a #7 Universal

Year which is a year of completion or education. It is recommended that you start with the teenage years so it would be easier to relate to actual experiences versus a newborn or younger child since they do not have any history yet to speak of.

- 5) All the numbers have very specific meanings; however, the following group of numbers, 19/1, 11/2, 13/4, 14/5 or 16/7, has more of an influence over your life's experiences than the others. Ideally, if you had a better understanding of what these numbers meant, you could prepare for the experiences each number will bring. Balancing the combination of these numbers is key since compound numbers have three characteristics associated with that number which may conflict. For example, a #16/7 is known as a karmic lesson. During this period, lessons will be learned and completed. The #1 represents leadership and creativity, the #6 devotion to family, and #7, the intellect who seeks knowledge for the purpose of teaching who requires alone time. The combination of all three characteristics can cause friction if the individual was not aware of how to balance the magnetic pulls that come from each number.

The purpose of the Essence chart is to bring insight, clarity, understanding and acceptance from your life's experiences; where you have been, where you currently are, and what lies ahead of you for the next five years. If you would like more information or have questions, you can book a live consultation for a more in-depth analysis of your Essence chart.

Introduction

The name and birthdate that appear on a birth certificate forms a unique numerical blueprint for the life of the individual. How well the individual expresses the numbers assigned to the name and birthdate is dependent upon their initial launching through their home environment, the structure and moral teachings of their parents, their level of education, and the breaks that one may or not receive on the path of life.

Any challenge, loss, or experience that shakes up your understanding of life, as you know it, should be regarded as an opportunity for growth. Not everyone responds in a positive way or makes the most out of a situation. It is your understanding and attitude of life that determines what is to be gained from the experience itself. It can be the beginning of your personal transformation into a higher realm of consciousness. The ultimate goal then is for each person to reach the apex of life, the cosmic consciousness.

Compound numbers that appear on the chart have a more in-depth meaning. Two of the eight most common compound numbers are considered to be Master numbers, the 11/2 and 22/4. The others are 19/1, 13/4, 14/5, 23/5, 16/7, and 18/9, all of which have a more intensified meaning because they are a compound number versus being a single digit. Double-digit numbers have specific characteristics that are dominated by that of a single-digit number it represents. The double-digit number intensifies certain aspects, and diminishes others, but it never eliminates any aspect completely.

Following is a personalized written explanation for each of the position numbers outlined in your chart and unique only to you. Odds are ten billion to one of anyone else having a chart identical to yours.

Your #9 Destiny = Humanitarian

This is the mental aspect of you and the controlling factor in deciding what you chose to receive from experiences in this lifetime. It is what you are born to do, and the part you are to play on the stage of life, now and in the future. We are all born with a unique architectural blueprint that is derived from the birthname and birthdate. This blueprint also provides the discipline and the direction to fulfill the master plan. The destiny number remains the same all your life.

The #9 Destiny is that of the humanitarian or spiritual dreamer who inspires others through his dedication and service to benefit mankind, not for personal gain. It is an energetic, impersonal, and emotional vibration in nature that works for the benefit of mankind. Other characteristics that add to success and happiness include tolerance, compassion, love, and understanding in addition to having learned forgiveness. Satisfaction from the soul is more important than materialistic rewards. Stay focused, as the greatest success will come from a public environment, versus smaller crowds. Teaching, healing, writing, music and art are all natural areas to pursue. Love, tolerance, compassion, understanding, and generosity are the keynotes to your success and happiness.

Your #7 Soul Desire (Also called the Heart's Desire)

This is the emotional aspect of you and is the innermost desire of the heart calling out for you to seek to express yourself in this world. You should heed the call of this inner voice and act upon it. The Soul Desire is derived from the vowels of your birthname. These vowels are the reflection of the emotions, the way you feel about things, people, places and situations including how you view yourself and your life. Your emotions react to your environment in which you find yourself, based on the models you have established or set up for you, on that inner level. It is the inner you that interprets and expresses your emotional responses to people and the environment around you. Your vowels will confirm your dreams and reflect your Soul Desire.

The #7 Soul Desire is for truth, wisdom, and knowledge, an inherent nature for the #7 and a mystical number of completion. Self-preservation and the need to spend time alone are important to the #7, thus presenting some difficulty in forming a successful partnership. Although deeply emotional but afraid to show it, learn to overcome the tendency to be reserved, conservative, and withdrawn. A keen sense of perfection governs your life and an inner magnetism, a result of being analytical, introspective, intellectual, and spiritual, tends to make you more selective and discriminating.

A visionary person at heart, seeking the odd, the mysterious and the unusual. Keep a broad faith in life itself and in people, but do not permit your quiet, reserved nature to suppress you. The primary challenge is to learn to trust and to experience the emotional side of you, which ultimately will result in growth and satisfaction. Never marry out of convenience or for social reasons. A natural-born teacher and advisor with a wealth of knowledge that should be shared with others. The greatest asset is intuition and inner voice. Learn to balance intelligence with enjoying life to be more integrated. Avoid isolation and becoming cynical towards others because the need for privacy or spending time alone. The Soul Desire #7 is something of an indifferent nature as it can live with or without love. It is very selective in friendship and romance and has a high sense of perfection.

Your #16/7 Personality

Your Personality forms the first real impression that you make on others and is the physical aspect of you. It forms the outer self and is the total composite expressions of the etheric, the emotional, the intellectual, and the physical aspects that you will radiate to others. When you walk into a room, you will give off “first impressions” and give off “vibrations” which people will pick up and interpret. People tune in first to the “physical” appearance that comes “before” you make the “first” impression. It is human nature to judge a person from the personality, which can lead to misunderstandings and even business failure. Keep in mind that a man or woman’s personality is not the true self, nor does it represent the inner nature. Instead, it is the outer self, the presentation card when meeting others in social or business settings.

The Personality is derived from the consonants of your birthname. Your full name at birth shows your intuitive response, the vowels your emotional response, while the consonants define your physical response. The language of the consonants can provide clues as to the kind of clothes you would look best in, to the style of car that would appeal to you, to how you see others and how others see you.

The #7 Personality appears to be mysterious and different, serious, subtle, exclusive, reserved, highly independent, self-sufficient, and requiring solitude and peace. You must guard against becoming arrogant and often appearing withdrawn. It is common for people to see your focus turn inside of yourself in the middle of a conversation. You are hard to get to know but once the barrier is broken, your aloof and quiet personality becomes friendly toward others. You gain much esteem by being well dressed, well groomed, and looking radiant and intelligent to others. Good style for you involves straight lines, with touches of sparkle and dash. Expensive clothing brings you the confidence that you need for show and tell.

The #16/7 Personality is aloof, selective, and gives much attention to self-preservation. The #7 is known for its intellectual pursuits and the desire for wisdom. The #1 desires to express its creative and original ideas for leadership while the #6 devotes its time and energy to service, family, and the community. The #7 wants time alone, which creates a possible conflict of interest. The challenge is the competition between the #1, free individual, the service provider of the #6, and the loner aspect of the #7. The #16/7 is generally characteristic of a karmic lesson to learn and grow from during this disruptive vibration.

Your #14/5 Purpose

Your Purpose number reveals what your mission in life is. It will tell you specifically what you must do and be, not what you are or what you may desire to be. It specifies all the experiences that you will need as an individual to get the most out of your own life. Also known as the intuitive aspect, the purpose number reveals itself to you in the form of hunches that are different and are separate from your own thinking processes. This is the intuitive aspect of you, the higher, silent self, which is a part of you, your inner connection with the forces of the universe. The intuitive aspect is the part of you that knows about those things before you become aware of them. It is the link between your physical, emotional, and intellectual experiences, the super conscious mind.

The #5 Purpose in life is to promote freedom and liberty for all. This involves bringing forth new ideas for the purpose of expansion and progress to pass these concepts on to others. Learn that change means progress not uncertainty; that change means growth and expansion. As you like a life of action, change, and progress, you should find your success working in the public arena. All progressive, forward-moving activities for the advancement and improvement of civic living give opportunity. Too many irons in the fire can lead to uncertainty and scattered forces. Seek a worthwhile work along the lines of public administration. You are versatile, clever and courageous.

The #14/5 Purpose represents the root #5 that is the number of change, variety, travel, and communication. The #1 represents creative and original leadership and the same freedom of the #5. Between them is the #4, which demands foundation, discipline, structure, and detail. This disruptive vibration can produce restrictions and sometimes lead to a sense of rebellion with a need to challenge the establishment.

Your #14/5 Life Goal

The Life Goal will manifest itself as a subtle influence that comes to the surface in the middle half of life. Its function is to give both hope and opportunity for continued purpose during your latter days and it is called the ultimate goal by some.

The #5 Life Goal promises great activity in the latter part of your life. The accent is on travel, variety, and freedom of thought and of action. You could shine as a writer or find success in the field of communication in such way to benefit mankind.

The #14/5 Life Goal is the number of change, variety, communication, and travel. The #1 implies the leadership of creative and original ideas and the highlight of the #5 is freedom and travel. Between them is the #4, which requires detail discipline, structure, and foundation. It produces some restrictions and in any kind of business venture, it represents risk and speculation.

Your #8 Personal Year

Your Personal Year is one of the most important tools in understanding and preparing for the true nature of events you are to experience during that year. The Personal Year clearly defines what can be expected, what to avoid, and the nature of your personal affairs to be experienced. This knowledge should be used in conjunction with that of the Birthdate numbers, and the Universal Years to show the correlation of all the events and responsibilities that exist between these factors.

The #8 Personal Year brings great opportunities for business and financial success. Your power is visible and strong, your mental creativity is high, and your vision and intuition will guide you while you become more efficient and focused. Money, power, business, and career are the keynotes of this year; however, you should be cautioned that this could be a year of financial loss if you don't remain focused and motivated. Planning, organizing, and putting into action new ideas follow suit. Since this is a business year, control your emotions and face the real facts in order to bring improvement in your financial situation. During this time you may want to buy a new car or travel—just to avoid boredom.

It's also very important to balance your business drive with volunteering your services and taking the time to join worthwhile organizations. This will bring you much satisfaction in the long run. This branching out into business and charitable affairs will give you a greater sense of freedom and accomplishment and undoubtedly will be a very satisfying year for you.

Cycles from Your #1 Birthdate

The Cycle numbers represent a combination of the final, reduced-down digit of the birth month, day, and year divided throughout your life into three major age spans as outlined in your Master chart under Cycles and Challenges. The Cycle numbers are important because they represent how you will feel internally during each of these age spans and the nature of your life experiences. The vibration of each cycle will last for the duration of that particular age span that you are in.

The #1 Cycle requires that you develop your individuality to the utmost. It is important to be independent and rely on your own resources for a lot is expected of you, especially if it's your first cycle. Likewise, it is important to develop your creative talent and your original and inventive ideas.

Your #0 Challenge

The Challenges show your strengths and weaknesses that you must deal with to become a more integrated and harmonious person. There are two "minor" Challenges, one "main" Challenge that is felt throughout your entire life, and the "third" and Last Challenge. If the "third" and Last Challenge is different from the "main" Challenge, then it is meant to give you more of a foundation during the later part of your life.

The #0 Challenge is considered the Challenge of "choice" as you have the right to choose your own obstacles or challenges. It stands for "none" or "all" challenges, since the circle represents the universe. There is a great chance for success should you dedicate your life to service for the benefit of mankind. Select a life path that will help you to use your talents for success so you don't drift through life. Keep from vacillating to please others and accomplish nothing. Develop and apply creative ideas.

Your #6 Challenge

The #6 Challenge is a domestic number concerned primarily with assuming the responsibility for the affairs of the home and the community. Deep within the nature of the #6 Challenge is the desire to be the head of household while at the same time, there is also the temptation to become possessive and domineering. Don't expect that everyone will conform to your rules or way of thinking, as you will be resented. You must learn to respect, not just tolerate, the views of others for true love and companionship.

Pinnacles define the timing and the nature of the four major changes in your life. These periods of time are different for each individual since they are derived from the birthdate and year. The Pinnacles are like roadmaps that clearly show the path you are traveling on now or will be traveling on in your quest to find the ultimate soul fulfillment, the apex of life. Pinnacles are like the four seasons in life: summer, spring, autumn and winter.

In the #2 Pinnacle, the #2 Personality shows the need for patience, cooperation, and sharing in all relationships, as this is not an aggressive number. The Universal Year indicates how the affairs of the world tend to influence the attitude of mankind. Your #1 Personal Year

Your Personal Year is one of the most important tools in understanding and preparing for the true nature of events you are to experience during that year. The Personal Year clearly defines what can be expected, what to avoid, and the nature of your personal affairs to be experienced. This knowledge should be used in conjunction with that of the Birthdate numbers, and the Universal Years to show the correlation of all the events and responsibilities that exist between these factors.

The Personal Years are based on the theory that your Personal Year begins on your birthdate. If the birthdate falls in the last part of the calendar year (July 1 through December 31), then the Personal Year comes under the vibration of the “following” year, even though the individual will have felt the strong vibrational pull months prior to the birthdate. It is easier to flow with the steam of life once you know what to expect on a yearly basis. Knowing what the year will bring adds joy and excitement to life. It also enhances the ability to live in grace rather than suffer from the pangs of resistance and fear that uncertainty often brings.

The #1 Personal Year is getting ready for major changes as you are at a crossroad in your life and need to stay on target. Making new plans and taking action are the keynotes of #1 Personal Year for it marks the beginning of a new nine-year cycle. What you set in motion this year creates the foundation for the rest of the nine-year cycle. How hard you work, and the kind of foundation you build, will follow you throughout this cycle. This requires persistence and courage on your part since the next nine years will depend a great deal upon what you do now. This is the time to make all necessary changes for your future success and to decide exactly what you want out of life. Be aware that there may be some emotional turmoil in the first few months while you are in the thrust of making changes. As you move into the second half of the year you should see the decisions you've made materialize, and by the end of the year you will see the fruits of your labors begin to take place.
